

Construction Management Electives (300/400 level):

The following are CM elective courses offered within the discipline:

- CstM 484 – Temporary Structures (typically offered Spring semester)
- CstM 485 – MEP I (typically offered Spring semester)
- CstM 495 – Seminar in Construction Management (this is reserved for student to earn elective credit for their participation in the ASC student competition or as a TA for a CM course)
- CstM 499 – Special Problems (this is reserved for student to earn elective credit for their participation in the ASC student competition or as a TA for a CM course)

The following courses are acceptable CM elective courses offered outside of the discipline:

- CE 463 - Engineering Administration
- ECONS 323 - Labor Relations
- ECONS 326 - Aspects of Sustainable Development
- ECONS 352 - Business Management Economics
- PHIL 360 - Business Ethics
- FIN 345 - Real Estate (prerequisites may be an issue – i.e., non-Business major/minor)
- FIN 350 - Risk & Insurance (prerequisites may be an issue – i.e., non-Business major/minor)
- MGMT 401 - Leading People & Organizations (prerequisites may be an issue – i.e., non-Business major/minor)
- MGMT 450 – Personnel & Human Resource Management (prerequisites may be an issue – i.e., non-Business major/minor)
- MGMT 485 - Negotiation Skills (prerequisites may be an issue – i.e., non-Business major/minor)
- MGMT 487 - Business Ethics & Corporate Responsibility (prerequisites may be an issue – i.e., non-Business major/minor)

Business Electives (300/400 level):

To meet the requirements for the 300-400 level business electives, students can take 300-400 level classes in Management, Business, International Business, Economics, or Finance.

